

Ans 1. The tree is naked in the winter because all its leaves have already shed and it's exposed, empty and has no pleasant features. The tree without any leaves or buds, is exposed to the harsh winter.

Ans 2. The life that lies sleeping underground are the seeds in the ground that are waiting to germinate in spring.

Ans 3. The tree dreams of the sun waiting for it to return and to wake him from his woody dreams.